

Please join us for our singing workshop

Subject: Mozart's Requiem

A choral singing workshop with BCS and their dynamic director Rory McCleery for a day exploring the wonderful Requiem by Mozart.

Facilitator: Rory McCleery

Rory McCleery is an award-winning Scottish conductor, countertenor and musicologist whose work takes him across the world: he has directed choirs and led masterclasses and workshops in the USA, Spain, Germany and Italy, and features regularly on radio and television, including the BBC2 series "Art That Made Us". Rory is Artistic Director of The Marian Consort, with whom he performs internationally, including a televised tour of Japan. When not researching and conducting, Rory is also active as a countertenor, performing as a soloist in the music of Handel, Bach and Purcell with such ensembles as The Dunedin Consort and The English Consort.

Date and Time: 10.00 – 15.30 approx, Saturday 17th January 2026. Please note that registration begins at 09.30 for a prompt start at 10.00.

Venue: School Hall, Queen Elizabeth's (Boys') School, Queens Road, Barnet, EN5 4DQ

Transport: The school is in a controlled parking zone so parking in nearby streets during the day is not possible. Limited parking will be available in the school grounds and car sharing is advised. The school has excellent links with public transport - Finding us - Queen Elizabeth's School

Refreshments: Tea, coffee, soft drinks and biscuits will be available at the workshop and are included in the price – please bring your own mug. You are advised to bring a packed lunch. There are two pubs and a Waitrose within a 10 - 15 minute walk but queuing is likely to be time-consuming and the lunchbreak is only 45 minutes.

Scores: Music will be provided on the day. We will be using the New Novello edition.

Cost: £18 in advance, £20 on the door, (Students 18-25 half price).
